DEMOCRATIC MEETING IN ALEXANDRIA COUNTY.—An enthusiastic meeting was held last night at Ball's X Roads. Mr. A. P. Douglas was elected chairman and Mr. J. E. Clements, secretary. A series of public meetings was arranged as follows: Thursday evening the 27th inst., at 7:30 o'clock at Carver school house in Washington district. Wednesday evening Nov. 21, same hour, at Walker school house, in Arlington district and Thursday evening the 3rd day of November, at Slater's school house, in Jefferson district, at the same hour; and on motion, Messrs. A. P. Douglas, C. B. Gahan, J. E. Clements, Frank Hume, Frederick R. Windsor, Wm. Tucker and Fairfax Minor, were appointed a committee to conduct said meetings. Messrs. R. Walton Moore, Charles E. Stuart and S. G. Brent were called upon and made able speeches. This was Mr. Moore's first appearance in the county and he made a fine impression.

Judge Stuart, the democratic nominee for the House of Delegates, made a very able and comprehensive speech to the people. Many questions on local legislation were asked Judge Stuart during his speech, all of which he answered satisfactorily, and pledged himself to do all in his power, if elected, to promote the interest of Alexandria city and county.

Mr. Brent made an eloquent and able speech upon the principles of the democratic party, and upon the necessity of electing the democratic ticket at the fall election.

Mr. A. P. Douglas, chairman of the county committee, made a speech appealing to his friends to stand by the nominee of the party at the election.

Mr. J. E. Clements, being called for, congratulated the people of the county on having an opportunity of voting for a ticket containing the names of Walton Moore and Judge Stuart. He spoke of Mr. Moore as being able, brave, handsome and eloquent; that he was almost the idol of Fairfax, his native county, and would make a State Senator there every man in the district would feel proud of. He said that it was useless to narrate Judge Stuart's qualifications; that he looked upon Judge Stuart as not only the most popular man in the Legislature, but one of the ablest and most influential; that with such men in the Legislature all needed legislation could be promptly obtained, and that no county and city in the State would surpass Alexandria county and city in the mental calibre and power of their representatives. He appealed to the people for their own interests to elect the ticket by a rousing majority.

AN INTERESTING CASE IN FAIRFAX.—On the 19th inst. Mrs. C. B. Ashby, who owns the old Fitzhugh farm, near Carlin's mill, on the Little river turnpike, four miles west of this city, got out a warrant from Justice Berkeley, of Annandale, against Wm. Watkins, a prominent farmer of the county, for unlawful trespass. Special Constable Howard executed the warrant, and the case came up before Justices Berkeley, Catts and Pulman at Annandale on the 20th. Mrs. Ashby was represented by Hon. J. Ambler Smith, of Washington, D. C., and Mr. Watkins by L. Marbury, esq., of this city. The facts in the case, as given in testimony, are these: Mrs. Ashby last April, a short while after she bought the farm, gave H. C. Fairfax written authority to sell one hundred cords of wood off her land. H. C. Fairfax did sell one hundred cords of wood to Thomas Fairfax, merchant of this city, and Thomas Fairfax hired the teams of Watkins to haul off the wood. Mrs. Ashby being cognizant of the whole transaction,

After Thomas Fairfax had moved, with Watkins' teams, about fifty cords of the wood, Mrs. Ashby's agent, a Mr. Robey, undertook to stop further removal by putting up a gate, and chaining it across the road upon the gate, and chaining it across the road. On the 14th inst., Watkins started to haul some more wood and found the road, heretofore said to have been a public road, closed by the gate and chain. He took down a panel of the fence near the gate and began hauling the wood. Mrs. Ashby got out the warrant as above stated, and the case was tried on the 21st inst. On the 15th instant Messrs. William and Charles Cockerill bought from Mrs. Ashby fifty cords of wood and they started to haul it off. Mr. Thomas Fairfax got out a warrant against them for larceny, he claiming that they were taking the wood, or a part of it, that he had bought of H. C. Fairfax. It was testified that Mrs. A. had one hundred and fifty cords of wood cut, and after T. Fairfax had contracted for one hundred cords, she had a right to sell the other fifty cords to whom she wished. After the evidence had all been submitted and argument by Messrs. Smith and Marbury, the justices gave judgment against each complainant by dismissing the warrants; the first warrant being in favor of Watkins, as he went upon the land under sufficient color of title, he being T. Fairfax's agent. The second warrant was against T. Fairfax, as no larceny was proved against the two Cockerills, Mrs. Ashby having right to sell the fifty cords of wood they moved away. The costs in the cases amounted to $11.20. The whole matter, we learn, has been amicably settled, and no further trouble is anticipated. There was a large crowd at the trial.

THE PRESIDENTIAL TRAIN.—The train on which the President and his party have been making their trip, passed through this city via the V. M. road at 6:15 o'clock this morning, after which it proceeded on to Washington. The train took the Midland road last night at Danville, and a special schedule had been issued by which it was run. There was no demonstration here on account of the early hour of the arrival of the President, only about one hundred persons having assembled at the depot, and they apparently had gathered as much for the purpose of inspecting the vestibule palace cars composing the train as to see the President, as it was generally supposed he would be asleep when he reached this place. His Excellency was up, however, and rested near a window, and as the train glided out of the depot he nodded his head occasionally as he was saluted by knots of persons who gazed at him. The cars were drawn by one of the Midland road's new passenger engines, the 693, run by Engineer Fleming, and the train was in charge of Conductor Pitts. There was no change of engines made here, the same locomotive which had pulled the train from Danville carrying it on to Washington. After the train arrived in Washington the B. & P. employees detached the V. M. engine, 693, that had brought it from Danville, and coupled a B. & P. engine to it and had the train and engine 318 photographed, so as to make it appear as if the B. & P. engine had brought the train through.

I. O. O. F. FAIR.—The Patriarchs Militant, of Washington, numbering about fifty men, headed by a drum corps, attended the fair of Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows in this city last night. The Patriarchs were in full regalia and made quite an imposing appearance. They returned on the midnight train. The following was the vote up to last night for the articles to be presented: Ladies' gold watch—Miss Florence Baggett, 9; Miss Leah Mills, 8; Miss Florence Edelin, 18; Miss Elsie Cook, 6.
 Gentleman's gold watch—L. M. Davis, 12; L. Brill, Jr., 8; Dr. Geo. Klipstein, 6; J. A. Stewart, 33; R. L. Baggett, 18; F. M. Hill, 5; Chas. Goodrich, 27.
 Conductor's lamp—A. P. Myers, 6; Henry Pitts, 4; Wm. King, 3; Chas. S. Bennett, 7; L. E. Robey, 5; R. B. Harrison, 8; J. H. Bartlett, 12; F. K. Stuart, 15.
 Brotherhood Locomotive Fireman's pin—J. Owen Cook, 5; Wm. Moore, 3; J. W. Williams, 8.
 Policeman's uniform—F. Bettis, 3; R. Henry, 12; Jas. Smith, 10; W. H. Price, 12.
 Table scarf—Mrs. L. M. Davis, 22; Mrs. Chas. Goodrich, 10.

PAINFULLY INJURED.—Yesterday afternoon Hector MacLean, while driving a spirited team at Shawnee, met with a serious accident. The horses took fright at a locomotive and ran away. The driver would have been able to handle them, but for the breaking of the harness. Mr. MacLean was thrown over the dash board, striking the ground with great force. He suffered the fracture of the bones of the right arm near the elbow, and the flesh was much lacerated. The left arm was sprained and there were several contusions on various parts of the body. The injured man was brought to the city last evening and taken to the Clarendon hotel, where he is resting comparatively easy to-day. Mrs. MacLean came up with her husband last evening and is with her husband.

 Mr. Jordan W. Lambert, of St. Louis, is in Richmond in attendance upon the Medical convention.
 Mr. Wm. N. Lambdin returned home yesterday evening after an absence of several days spent in visiting the caverns of Luray and the Natural Bridge.
 Messrs. J. P. Robinson and Walter Roberts left here this morning for Mr. Robinson's farm, near Rappahannock station, on a hunting trip.
 Cards are out for the marriage of Mr. Gordon Blackwell and Miss Lucy Douglas Moxley, daughter of Mr. Moxley, of Greenwich, Prince William county.
 The condition of Dr. Albert Fairfax was less favorable this evening and but slight hopes are entertained of his recovery.

THE OPERA HOUSE.—"Shadowed Crime," a highly successful drama in four acts, will be produced at the Opera House to-night by Mr. George W. Mitchell, supported by an excellent company. Mr. Mitchell assumes five distinct characters, in all of which he stands pre-eminent. Specialties of songs, dances and music will be introduced. The San Francisco Minstrels will appear at the Opera House next Monday night. The Lynchburg Virginian says of the troupe: "The San Francisco Minstrels had a high time at the Bijou Theatre last night. The house was crowded, and we have rarely seen a more enthusiastic audience. Almost every act was applauded, and the crowd was in a good humor throughout. This company will be welcomed back to Lynchburg whenever they may come."

PROPERTY SALES.—Mr. George Struder and wife have sold to Mr. W. J. Walker a lot of ground on the north side of Gibbon street, between Lee and Fairfax, fronting 16 feet on Gibbon street for $175.
 Mr. R. T. Lucas, auctioneer, sold to-day, at public auction, for Messrs. Marbury & Armstrong, attorneys for the owner, the Virginia House property, located at the corner of King and Peyton streets, to Mr. F. E. Corbett, for the sum of $1,000.
 Mr. Lucas, as trustee, also sold for Mrs. Eliza Swansbury, at private sale, the house and lot at the northwest corner of Cameron and Patrick streets, to Mr. Geo. R. Hill, for $1,100 cash.

THE AQUEDUCT BRIDGE.—Under the contract of the United States with the Mt. Vernon Bridge Company of Ohio, the Aqueduct bridge should have been completed yesterday, but as yet, while the masonry is almost done, only two spans of the structure are up. The time will be extended and the bridge finished before Christmas. It is thought that $80,000 will be sufficient to carry the work through.

FIRE.—The alarm of fire about 6 o'clock yesterday evening was caused by the partial burning of the roof of the large brick dwelling on Lee street, between Queen and Princess, occupied by Miss Hannah Talsapang. The alarm was quickly responded to by the fire department, and the flames were extinguished before much damage had been done. Sparks from a chimney caused the fire.

CALL ACCEPTED.—Rev. James I. Vance, of Wytheville, Va., has accepted the call tendered him by the Second Presbyterian Church, of this city, and his Presidency (Abingdon) has been called to meet in Norfolk, Nov. 4th during the sessions of synod to take action in the matter.

 The SUNKEN STEAMER.—Engineer Saml. Johnson, of the steamer E. C. Knight, which was sunk last week off the Cape by the steamer Gulf Stream, arrived at his home in this city to-day from New York, where he was taken after the accident. He says there has been no investigation of the affair yet and probably will not be. He says the crew of the Knight had but twenty minutes to leave the steamer from the time she was struck till she sank and that little but the clothes worn by them were saved. It is believed that the Knight has gone to pieces, as barrels of flour and other things composing the cargo have been picked up in the ocean by passing vessels. Mr. Johnson gives no further particulars of the collision than have already been published.

Don't hawk, hawk, blow, spit, and disgust everybody with your offensive breath, but use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and end it.

The capital stock of this company is $625,000, divided into 625,000 shares of $1 each.

The company is incorporated under the laws of West Virginia, and the stock is non-assessable, and carries with it no personal liability to the holder.

THE GOLD MINING COMPANY (location, Music Mountains, A. T.) is as sound a mining enterprise as was ever placed on the market, and its possibilities have never been exceeded. Every share should double in value within a year, and they may quadruple, as they are based on property that would ordinarily have been capitalized ten (10) times as great on account of its known richness and promise.

The shares are made small so that any one can invest. Subscriptions for five shares are as welcome as those for hundreds.

Every dollar of earnings will go to the stockholders in dividends, as there is nothing else that they can be used for.

A Wisewell mill, capacity 20 tons per day, with powerful machinery, has been purchased and will be on the ground ready for erection at the mine within the next thirty days.

The solid basis upon which the company is founded and the practical proofs of the richness of the mine have already secured the confidence of the public, and the stock has steadily advanced in selling value. Within the last few days bona fide sales have been made AT PAR.

There is no better stock on the market for a permanent investment. For full information in regard to this Mine apply to the
